

Missin' You

Music and lyrics by Lynne Lamberis and Randy Klein

I never thought that I would be
the one who's feelin blue.
I never thought that I'd be here
alone and missin you.
Without a word got up and left
to start my life a new,
now missin you's the only thing thats left for me to do.

Remembering the good times.
Forgetting all the bad.
Every time I think of them
it only makes me sad.
Althought there have been others
but never one like you,
now missin you's the only thing thats left for me to do.

Is there nothin I can say Nothin I can do to make you realize my love was true

I thought that we would last those feelings of the past
Now a memory's the only part I have of you

I never thought that I would be
the one who's feelin blue.
I never thought that I'd be here
alone and missin you.
Without a word got up and left
to start my life a new,
now missin you's the only thing thats left for me to do.
