Abraham Naim – Biography

Abraham Naim was born on the 3rd of August 2000. He is currently studying with Prof. Thomas Reiner (Composition) and Eric Jiang (Piano). Abraham is trying to achieve in his performances a respect for the score along with a fresh insight into the music itself to the highest standard of quality. His fine and mature musicianship along with his secure technical foundation provides for meaningful interpretations of the music he plays. His repertoire includes a wide variety of composers from Bach through to Scriabin, Prokofiev and Schoenberg.

Abraham's compositions show admiration for the great romantic era of the past while looking forward to the present and future with the use of harmony and form. His catalogued works include: 3 Piano Concertos, 2 Tone Poems and numerous other works for a variety of genres including Chamber Music and Solo Instrumental Music.
